RESTRaining ORDER

By Galanty and Alper Against the City of Mayville to Prevent the Corporation From Tearing Down Their Property, Condemned by the City Council.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday, through their attorney, H. W. Cole, Messrs. Meyer Galanty and Simon Alper asked for a restraining order against the City of Mayville to prevent its agents and employees from tearing down their property, now occupied by the Central Garage, which was recently condemned by the City Council.

The property in question is the addition to the Central Garage, owned by Mr. O. L. Bartlett. Sometime ago Mr. Bartlett decided that he needed an addition to his garage and the property owners obtained the permission of the surrounding citizens and the consent of the Building Committee of the City Council. Having received this consent they went ahead and built the addition, although the City Council had not passed on the building. In the meantime the Fire Chief visited the place and found that the building was entirely unsuited to be placed in the heart of the city and so reported the matter to the Council. That body then declared it a nuisance and ordered it removed at once.

In their petition the plaintiffs state the defendant, its agents and servants are about to, unless prevented will enter upon the property for the purpose of tearing down and demolishing the said building thereof, and that they will hereby suffer great and irreparable injury from the delay in giving notice of motion of injunction to prevent same. The plaintiffs state that they have never been granted or refused any injunction or restraining order by the Mason Circuit Court or any other judge or court. The plaintiffs pray that the defendant be enjoined and restrained from entering the property and from tearing down or demolishing said building or from in any way interfering with its use and enjoyment thereof.

The case is attracting a great deal of interest but the final outcome of the matter is still in doubt.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Mr. John R. Morford of Covington was badly shocked and burned by electricity while working at the Newport Power House the first of the week. For a time it was thought his injuries would prove fatal but the doctors now say he has a fighting chance to get over it. Mr. Morford had a similar experience at the same place a few years ago and has never fully recovered from its effects. Mr. Morford is well known in Mayville having lived all his early life here. He is the father of Mrs. J. H. Richardson of East Second street, and has scores of friends who will regret his misfortunes. He will be confined to the hospital for some time even if he recovers.

MAYSVILLE BOY WINNER

Word has been received here of the excellent playing of Edward Barbour of this city in the tennis tournament at Culver, Ind., where he is attending school. The school paper, the Bugle, says that in the junior singles the choice is between two men, Barbour and Gignilat, the son of the dean of the school. Both of these men play a steady brilliant game. Here's hoping that Ed wins.

CO-OPERATION

Is the Plan of Governor Stanley in Fight Against the White Plague in An Address Before the Seventh District Tuberculosis Meeting at Covington Yesterday.

Covington, Ky., August 23—Governor A. O. Stanley addressed delegates from the counties of Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Gallatin, Grant, Harrison, Kenton, Mason and Owen to the Seventh District Tuberculosis Sanitarium meeting in Judge Tracy's court room today. Harry B. Mackoy was chairman and said that Kenton county has accumulated about $19,000 for the establishment of a tuberculosis sanitarium and that the State Tuberculosis Commission wants the co-operation of all the counties in the Seventh district.

Governor Stanley said in part:

"It is the duty of the government to see that diseases which decimate society, which take away lives precious to society are curtailed, controlled or prevented. Every man is worth according to statistics $1,500 to society. He ought to be worth many thousands. It is as much the duty of the government to rid these instruments of death as to fight hostile armies.

"Tuberculosis is as deadly as the steel bullets fired by an invading army. This matter of fighting tuberculosis is merely a matter of business. One-seventh of the human race is dying from this disease.

"I want my Tuberculosis Commission to be a commission with a purpose and common sense. I want the commission to stamp out dread diseases in this State. The commission is neither Democratic or Republican."

The Governor concluded his speech with an earnest plea for the co-operation of the delegates in the fight the State is making to wipe out tuberculosis.

Short addresses were delivered by representatives from various counties. Luncheon was served in the law library to the delegates at the noon adjournment by Colonel Tom Cody.

At the afternoon session resolutions were presented, followed by discussions. At 4 o'clock the delegates took an automobile trip through the county to select a site for the proposed sanitarium.

The site that will most probably be selected is situated on a hill just west of Covington. From the promontory the cities of Cincinnati, Covington, Newport and Fort Thomas are visible. The site comprises ninety-seven acres and is an ideal spot, being very isolated. It is to be hoped that the proposed sanitarium will be a go.

HELD TO GRAND JURY

Young Colored Boy, Charged With Forgery, Awaits Examination—Bond at $500.

The case of Robert McNeil, colored, charged with forgery, was held in Police Court yesterday and after hearing the evidence Judge Whitaker held him to the September term of Grand Jury for examination.

About a year ago, McNeil, bought a suit of clothes from Galanty & Alper and gave them a bogus check in payment. A warrant was gotten out for him but he could not be found. Monday night Officers Bloomhoff and Throckmorton received a tip that he was stopping at a house in the West End. Together with Chief Mackey the officers raided the home of Thornton Allen on West Third street and captured the negro. He was lodged in jail and his trial held yesterday afternoon as the witnesses could not be summoned in time for the trial Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Galanty of the firm, Galanty & Alper, testified that McNeil bought merchandise amounting to $4.50 and gave them a check for $10. He received the $5.50 in change but when the check was deposited it was found to be a forgery.

When the boy's plea was asked for he replied, "Prove me guilty."

WILSON DEFEATING HIMSELF

Quite naturally Democratic politicians, stumpers and organs complain that Mr. Hughes is paying too great attention to the Mexican situation, and their complaint is not strange. The manner in which the President has handled the Mexican situation has brought only dishonor and discredit on his administration and the whole country knows it. But Mr. Hughes has not confined himself safely to the Mexican question. That question is embraced in his "America First", with civil service embodied in the efficiency he demands—and the whole country with him. The manner in which Mr. Hughes handled the Durand case is sufficient answer to the charge that he is paying too great attention to the Mexican situation. In any event, it is no political concern of the administration, nor of the Democratic party, how Mr. Hughes manages his campaign. It is being managed to the complete satisfaction of the Republican party.

If, however, the Democratic party really desires discussion of events not concerning nor involved in the Mexican situation, the recent action of the Postoffice Department, with Bureau of Texas in charge, by which some 300 employees of the Chicago Postoffice were dropped from the pay rolls while in camp at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. will furnish a great opportunity for Democratic dodging as to the reasons. The 300 federal employees in the Chicago Postoffice were also members of the Illinois State Guard and, as such, were called to the colors by President Wilson. Gallantly they responded and went to camp in the Lone Star State, leaving position, family and friends at home—only to find what? Decisive action on the border? The decisive action to them was that they had been dropped from the pay rolls of the Chicago Postoffice! Why?

They were men competent to fill the places to which they had been appointed and to which, under civil service, they were entitled and from which they could not be removed save for cause. They went to the front and are officially notified of their dropping from the pay-rolls. The reason for the dropping is not hard to discover. Three hundred gallant employees of the Chicago postoffice, leaving for the border, brought about 300 vacancies in the pay-roll. Dropping their names from the pay-roll, under orders from Washington, gave to the administration an opportunity to fill the 300 vacancies by the appointment of 300 hungry Wilson Democrats. It is idle to suggest that the vacancies will not be filled.

The dropped employees have been kindly told that they will be eligible to reinstatement after honorable discharge from military service. But when will that be? President Wilson has not. Under his policy of inaction, the November election will have been held and Hughes elected before the commission to be named will have concluded its parleys, presuming, of course, that President Wilson will be able to find some one to take a place on the commission representing America. After the election it will be of slight consequence to Wilson what happens. In the meantime the outrageous violation of civil service in the Durand case becomes insignificant in the light of the dropping from the payroll of 300 and more gallant boys who went to the front at the call of President Wilson only to create vacancies for 300 and more hungry Wilson Democrats. He may not know it, but all other men know it—President Wilson is defeating himself.

Numberless and thoroughly patriotic instances there are of employers not only holding the places of their employees who have gone to the front as the Chicago postoffice employees went, but who pay their employees at the front the wages they earned at their desks or branches. That being so, why should the Federal Government, through its administrative officials destroy the patriotic action of private individuals by its arbitrary, un-American and unpatriotic action with reference to the Chicago employees?

The man who loves his country makes sacrifices for it—and is it patriotic or American on the part of the administration to do as it has done in the Chicago instance? Not one American citizen, loving his country and admiring patriotic impulse to serve the age will endorse the action of the administration in dropping from the pay-roll 300 federal employees who answered the call to the colors!—Commercial Tribune.

War orders have given the New York Air Brake Company such a large cash balance that they are puzzled to know what to do with it. It is estimated that on August first the company will have $5,000,000 cash on hand. The company is at present earning 11 per cent on its stock and the war orders far shells on which the company is now working will swell net profits to the point where not less than $70 per share will be shown for the fiscal year. Of this $60 will be earned in less than eight months to August 31. They have been considering investing their cash balance in outside securities with a view to receiving $300,000 of annual outside income. This would mean that stockholders in normal times might count on 11 per cent dividends—eight per cent from the equipment industry, and 3 per cent from their $10,000,000 of stock from the invested funds. This is Democratic prosperity.

Did anybody ever see a convention of public officials—like these postmasters in Washington—which made its politics so conspicuous and was encouraged by the head of the nation in his address to consider themselves as Democrats rather than as public servants. In old days, before civil service reform came, they used to charge that the publican postmasters were the most offensive partisans in the whole bunch, but they didn't get together and label themselves a partisan organization.—Waterbury American.

UNUSUAL CASE

(Flemingsburg Gazette)

A case of rather unusual interest was brought into the county court yesterday when on complaint of Henderson & Hinton, produce dealers, a warrant was issued for John Howard charging him with a violation of the pure food law. Howard sold the firm seven cases of eggs, one case of which were alleged to be rotten, hence the warrant. The case was set for trial Wednesday. So far as is known it is the first case of the kind to come up here under the pure food law.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Belle Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

NEW YORK LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

Face Saving Legislation—It is generally an occasion of surprise that the party in power should devote so much time and energy to what is merely face saving legislation. Such a measure is the Philippine bill just passed. This measure had for its real purpose the pledging of the United States to retire completely from the Philippines within five years. Even the potent influence of President Wilson was insufficient to have this provision, and without it the bill is almost meaningless. It makes certain change in the Philippine government, but they are unimportant. The preamble is bad, because it is false. It is designed to raise in the minds of Filipinos hopes of independence which there is no immediate prospect of gratifying. The embodiment of this preamble in the legislation is worse than useless. The New York Tribune pronounces it "Enacting a Lie." Senator Borah demanded why the Democrats wanted to pass this bill at all in its emasculated form, but he got on satisfactory answer. Mr. Borah had voted for the bill when it contained the Clarke amendment, fixing the five year period, but he voted against the bill when that amendment had been stricken out and, furthermore, he surprised the Senate by announcing that he had become convinced that the great majority of the American people were against the scuttling policy in the Philippines. The real reason why the bill was passed in its emasculated form was "to save the face of the President." He had decreed that the bill must pass and he and his friends in Congress believed that if Congress passed something called a Philippine bill the people would be too unintelligent to observe that what he had actually demanded had been rejected, and would construe the passage of the mere shell as a Wilson victory. Another "face-saving" measure which probably will be put through is the Wilson-McAdoo Shipping bill. It won't be the real Wilson-McAdoo bill, which Congress could not be induced to pass, but a comparatively innocuous substitute which can do nothing worse than involve the waste of $50,000,000 of the public funds, and which won't involve the United States in the European war, as would have the original Wilson-McAdoo measure. Here again, the only object in passing the emasculated Shipping bill is "to save the face of the President."

Special Taxes. Democratic testimony that the Underwood tariff falls by upwards of $200,000,000 to raise its share of the revenue needed to carry on the government is furnished by the Senate Finance committee which has, after strenuous labors, reported a supplementary revenue bill imposing special taxes designed to raise $205,000,000 revenue. Probably many Democrats would be reluctant to admit that this means taking out of the pockets of Americans over $20,000,000 which, under a different tariff could just as well be taken out of the pockets of foreigners; although there is much evidence to support that contention, clearly established instances where the wholesale price of the foreign manufacturer has been advanced exactly the amount of the reduction in the tariff, so that the American consumer galloped nothing from the reduction of the duty. But no Democrat can deny that these special taxes are made necessary by the failure of the Underwood bill to provide sufficient revenue. The special taxes are bound to be onerous in many cases. For instance, every theater or place of amusement which seats 250 must pay a tax of $25; which seats 500, a tax of $50, and so on up. All bowling alleys and billiard parlors must pay a special tax of $5 for each alley and each table. Every mortgage and certificate of indebtedness must pay a stamp tax of 50 cents for every $500 of amount. A form of duty is imposed by special taxes on all goods entering and coming out of custom-houses and bonded warehouses. Steamship and Pullman tickets bear special taxes, and many other things, all in addition to doubling the income tax, and imposing heavy taxes on inheritance. The House tax on war munitions was rejected when it was found it would hit cotton, and there was substituted an additional tax on the profits of corporations which, it is expected, will be collected almost entirely in the Northern states.

The Shipping Bill—The Senate has passed the McAdoo-Wilson Shipping bill and it now goes to conference. It has been shorn of some of its worst features, but still serves some highly desirable purposes. Its message will "save the President's face." It will provide a number of sinecures for "deserving Democrats." First come the members of the Shipping Board, with salaries of $7,500 each, then all the secretaries and employees. Then it appropriates $50,000,000 out of the Treasury, and every experienced politician knows how convenient it is to have $50,000,000 to expend on the eve of a Presidential election. Oh yes, it's a fine bill.

DUTY OF THE ADMINISTRATION TO STOP PLOTS AND CONSPIRACIES.

We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation. Utterly intolerable is the use of our soil for alien intrigues. Every American must unreservedly condemn them, and support every effort for their suppression. But here, also, prompt, vigorous and adequate measures on the part of the Administration were needed. There should have been no hesitation; no notion that it was wise and politic to deny. Such an abuse of our territory demanded immediate and thoroughgoing action. As soon as the Administration had notice of plots and conspiracies, it was its duty to step them. It was not lacking in resources. Its responsibility for their continuance cannot be escaped by the condemnation of others.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

A girl would rather be told she is passing fair than that she is already past.

BERNHARDT FRIGHTENS REPORTER

In the August American Magazine is an amusing story of the experiences of a Swedish reporter while interviewing Sarah Bernhardt. He asked her how she played "La Tosca." The result was a demonstration which drove him in terror from her private car. In describing his experiences to his city editor he said:

"With each step she took toward me, ranting, screaming and brandishing the paper cutlass, I macked the chair toward the door, dragging my belongings with me. Finally she stood before me pale, breathless, terrible, knife in the air, ready to strike. When she made the final lunge, I just had strength enough left to fall out of the chair and half ran and rolled into the vestibule. In the scramble I had left my overcoat. When I got on my feet the Madame had disappeared. I made a dash for it, just as she portended her head through the pale blue portieres, presumably to view the corpse: 'Zat es 'La Tosca,' n'r."

"It's better to have loved and lost than to have loved and kept."

"Good, Isn't It, Grandpa?"

"Yes, Sonny, Postum is good, and much better for you than coffee—you'll know why sometime. In fact, children should never drink coffee or tea—and most grown-ups would be better off without either."

"In coffee and tea there's a drug that is harmful, especially for children, and it often causes troublesome conditions in older folks."

POSTUM

Is fine for both children and grown-ups. It is made from good wheat, roasted with a little wholesome molasses—nothing to hurt anyone.

There's a delightful flavor to Postum—the pure food-drink for those who want to be healthy and happy.

LACK OF FOOTWEAR HOLDS UP REVIEW OF THE GUARDMEN

Camp Willis, Columbus, O., August 22—The old shoe problem of Ohio troops has bubbled up again. General W. V. McMaken, camp commander, today called off a review of all the soldiers in camp, declaring he would not try to hold a review until every man in camp was shod.

It is estimated at least 400 men in camp haven't had shoes issued to them in the nearly seven weeks they have been in camp, and hundreds of the shoes that were issued are wearing out, while no more shoes are in sight.

"If something is not done about the shoes soon we will be as bad off as when we first came to camp," General McMaken said.

The worst shortages are in the engineers' battalion, Dayton; the Second of Ada and the Sixth of Toledo. It is estimated there are at least 100 men in each of these outfits who have never been given shoes or whose shoes are ready for the junk pile.

MAY BUILD NEW LINE

Elizabethtown, Ky., August 22—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad company is considering the proposition of building a new line from this city to Lexington. It is the result of a recent decision by the Interstate Commerce commission in regard to L. & N. shipping regulations in Louisville, which will have the effect of nullifying an important arrangement between the L. & N. and the C. & O., whereby the L. & N. handles the shipments of the C. & O. in Louisville. The distance from Lexington to Elizabethtown over the L. & N. is 139 miles, while the distance over the proposed new road is only 98 miles by the pike.

Gelling Inquisitive

Washington, August 22—Information on whether Major General Funston has recommended withdrawal of the troops from Mexico and detailed information of many features of the National Guard mobilization is asked in a resolution today by Representative Madden of Illinois and referred to the Military Committee.

BRYAN TO MAKE EXTENSIVE TOUR IN WILSON'S BEHALF

New York, August 22—William J. Bryan's speaking tour in behalf of President Wilson will begin about September 15, probably in Ohio, and will continue up to election day, it was announced today at national Democratic headquarters. It is planned to have Mr. Bryan speak in every Eastern and Middle Western State except Missouri and Michigan. When the Bryan itinerary is completed arrangements will be made for the campaigning trip to the coast of former Gov. Martin H. Glynn, of New York. His probably will start soon after September 9.

Speaker Champ Clark, of the House of Representatives, today returned to headquarters the money advanced to him for expenses in opening his Democratic campaign in Maine last week.

Mr. Clark, in a letter, explained that the payment of his own expenses for speaking constitutes the only way he can legally contribute to the cause, and that he had never yet accepted a cent of expense money from the National Democratic committee.

He added that as a candidate for reelection the laws of Missouri prohibit him from expending more than $600 as a campaign fund, and he needed that amount for his own campaign.

ARMY OFFICERS SAYS DANES WANT TO KEEP WEST INDIES

New York, August 22—Sentiment in Denmark is strongly against the sale of the Danish West Indies, to the United States, according to Count Frederik Moltke, a captain in the Danish army, who arrived here today aboard the Scandinavian-American line steamship Hellig Olav. Count Moltke is on his way to Washington where he will join the Danish legation as director of army contracts.

"Sentiment in Denmark does not favor the sale of the Danish West Indies," the Count declared. "It is not a matter of price but a feeling of sentiment among the people, that has caused such strong opposition to the sale."

Marius I. Nyeboe, a prominent ship owner of Denmark and a well known Arctic explorer, who is on his way to Greenland, supplemented Count Moltke's statement by saying that the sentiment in Denmark is to postpone the sale until the end of the war.

POLICE FORCE STRIKES

Sherbrooke, Quebec, August 22—The local police force, whose request for higher pay recently was refused by the City Council, today decided to strike. The Council, in a militant mood, retaliated with a threat to raise an amateur force. The opening of the Sherbrooke Fair, during which the city is crowded with thousands of visitors has been chosen as the time to inaugurate the strike. At present the police receive $13 for a seven-day working week.

TO SEARCH FOR A SERUM THAT WILL END PLAGUE

Baltimore, August 22—Scientists of the Pathological Department of Johns Hopkins University will begin an extensive experiment with the hope of producing a serum that will battle successfully with the germ of infantile paralysis, it was learned today. It was said that it would be perhaps a month before any definite statement of results would be given to the medical profession.

HAVE YOU A BAD BACK?

If You Have the Stomach of this Maysville Resident Will Interest You.

Does your back ache, night and day? Hinder work; destroy your rest? Does it stab you through and through? When you stoop or lift or bend? Then your kidneys may be weak. Often backache is the clue. Just to give you further proof, The kidney action may be wrong. If attention is not paid More distress will soon appear. Headaches, dizzy spells and nerves, Uric acid and its life. Make the burden worse and worse. Liniments and plasters can't Reach the inward cause at all; Help the kidneys—use the pills Maysville folks have tried and proved.

What they say you can believe. Read this Maysville man's account. See him, ask him, if you doubt.

L. Stevens, West End, Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backaches. The pains extended through my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in the family, so I gave them a trial. They made me feel better in every way." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stevens had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WILSON FLEXIBILITY

We do not see why there should have been any stir in the senate over the discovery that President Wilson has completely reversed himself in the matter of the proposed child labor law. Senator Borah was able to show that Mr. Wilson described this legislation in his "Constitutional Government" as unconstitutional, an "obviously absurd extravagance," carrying the congressional power to regulate commerce beyond the "utmost boundaries of reasonable and honest inference," and making it possible, if enacted, for congress to legislate over "every particular of the industrial organization and action of the country." That, we must confess, has also been the Evening Post's view. But the Evening Post and Senator Borah are old fogies, dating back to the time when it was the custom to have fixed beliefs and principles and stick to them. The senator has evidently not read Mr. Wilson's letter in explaining his change of front on the tariff commission—that it is only a narrow man, whose mind is stupidly closed to new ideas, who does not alter his opinions. By this test, Mr. Wilson is obviously one of the broadest minded men this country has ever produced, for he has changed his mind, to date, on the initiative, referendum, recall, woman suffrage, the tariff commission, tariff for revenue only, a permanent diplomatic service beyond politics, the merit system in the civil service, the proper place of Tammany Hall in the scheme of the universe, child labor legislation, preparedness, Bryan, a continental army—but why continue? It is a long enough list to prove that Mr. Wilson's political views are not fossilized by any fear of inconsistency.—New York Evening Post.

The people who utter so much criticism of everything in their home town but never do anything themselves, are just about the type that are called "blacklegs" in England.

With a woman, it's not a man's looks that count; it's what he says—and does.

OLD SOLDIER DIES

Mr. James W. Allison died at his home in Manchester, Monday morning at three o'clock. He was buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery at that place Wednesday morning. Mr. Allison was 76 years of age at the time of his death. He was a Civil War veteran, serving throughout the conflict as a member of Company D, 70th O. V. I. His wife and one daughter survive, the latter being Mrs. D. M. Drenan of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Allison was well known in this city, having attended a great number of the old soldiers reunions here. The news of his death will be met with genuine sorrow by his surviving old comrades.

POSTAL CARS MAY BE REPLACED ON LOCAL TRAINS

It is said that the postal authorities are considering replacing mail cars on local trains Nos. 8 and 17 which pass here at 9:40 and 9:30 a. m. respectively. When the C. & O. put on the two new fast trains the mail service on the locals was discontinued. It is said that when the mail is pitched from the fast trains it often falls in weeds where it cannot be found or sometimes it falls under the train itself.
